

Dennis Corbin, MS, AT, ATC – MATS Hall of Fame Inductee Class of 2014

Place of employment when selected into the Hall of Fame: Western Michigan University

Education:

- University of Arizona (MS, 1979)
- Central Michigan University (BS, 1976)

Dennis Corbin has served the Athletic Training profession through his clinical experiences, leadership, and volunteering. He provided care for patients in the collegiate setting. Before his time as the Head Athletic Trainer at Western Michigan University in 1982, Dennis served as an Assistant Athletic Trainer with Bowling Green State University for three years. Dennis showed considerable leadership during his 36-year tenure as the Head Athletic Trainer at Western Michigan University, making a difference in the lives of numerous student-athletes.

Unfortunately, Dennis dealt with cancer in 2013 and ultimately passed away in 2018 due to complications from a stroke. The passing of Dennis was felt by family, numerous Athletic Trainers, former student-athletes from Western Michigan University, and Western Michigan University staff. Colleagues have remembered Dennis as “sincere, humble, and dedicated to the Athletic Training profession.”